BCVA Accredited Foot Health Trainer Course and CHCSB Accredited Instructor Course (Lantra Training)

Monday 9th March 2025

Nantwich Farm Vets, Chester Road, Hurleston, Nantwich, CW5 6BU

Synopsis

BCVA Accredited Foot Health Trainer Course and CHCSB Accredited Instructor Course (Lantra Training)

Attendance at this course will allow:

- Hoof trimmers to become CHCSB Accredited Instructors
- Vets to become BCVA Accredited Foot Health Trainers

These are prerequisite qualifications to deliver the Lantra-approved First Aid for Feet and Intermediate Hoof Trimming Courses. A multidisciplinary team of a CHCSB Accredited Instructor and a BCVA Foot Health Trainer is required to deliver either of these courses.

Instructor/Trainer course prerequisites:

Hoof trimmers must be:

- A Fully Audited CHCSB Member
- Hold a current Emergency First Aid at Work certificate
- Have attended Lantra Train the Trainer course

Vets must be:

- An in-date Mobility Mentor
- Have an in-date active RoMS membership

This one-day course will cover all aspects of delivery of the Lantra programme from set-up to delivery. It will enable attendees to familiarise themselves with the structure and content of the courses alongside the materials (handouts and PowerPoints) that are supplied to assist delivery.

On the course, BCVA Foot Health Trainers will practice working closely with CHCSB instructors (and the course instructors) to establish the type of delivery partnerships being promoted for consistency in high quality training. The aspects of evidence-based best practice will be discussed.

There will also be a practical element involving cadaver limbs to build confidence in applying training techniques and ensure assessment of competency is standardised at the end of each of the Lantra-approved courses.

About the Speakers

Tim Carter is a professional hoof trimmer and Chairman of the Cattle Hoof Care Standards Board (CHCSB). Having grown up on a dairy farm and then worked as a herdsman he trained to become a cattle foot trimmer in 2000. Tim holds both the NPTC Level 3 and Dutch Diploma in foot trimming. He was instrumental in establishing the Royal Agricultural University Level 4 course in professional foot trimming and is the principal instructor on the course. Tim also sits on the Dairy Cattle Mobility Steering Group

Jay Tunstall is a Veterinary Consultant working for Herd Health Consultancy (part of the Map of Ag group), with a particular interest and focus on mobility, hoof trimming and training.

Jay worked in practice in both Somerset and Cheshire before undertaking a PhD aiming to establish a baseline of information regarding lameness in beef cattle. He's also spent a short spell at Liverpool University, some work overseas and a few years at a UK bull stud, before joining the team at Herd Health Consultancy.

He is an AHDB Mobility Mentor, BCVA Foot Health Trainer, RoMS instructor, CHCSB hoof trimming Instructor and auditor, qualified and fully audited at Level 4 Professional Bovine Hoof Trimming standard and delivers various consultancy and training, either privately, via Lantra hoof trimming or RoMS courses, or on the SRUC Level 4 Professional Bovine Hoof Trimming course.
